

Air Force Recognizes SBAR with Prestigious Award

Colorado Springs, April 27, 2010 – Santa Barbara Applied Research, Inc. (SBAR) was presented the Peterson Air Force Base Small Business Contractor of the Year Award, second year in a row.

During the awards luncheon recognizing the winners of the various Air Force activities, a special award was announced for the “overall winner”.

SBAR is the proud recipient of the 2010 DoD Pikes Peak Region Small Business of the Year Award. This award encompasses activities including: Air Force Space Command, Space and Missile Defense Command/Army Forces Strategic Command, Peterson Air Force Base, Schriever Air Force Base, Fort Carson, US Air Force Academy, etc.

It is a great honor to be recognized by our customers for our exceptional performance. More importantly, for giving a company like SBAR the opportunity for performing on such large, complex, and vital Air Force contracts.
